

AbouBakr Fathalla

Aboubakr Fathalla, International Engagement Manager at Cardiff Metropolitan University, is responsible for developing and maintaining Cardiff Metropolitan University's wide international activities, including; Transnational Education Network (TNE) and enhancing it to cover a wider scope of partnerships, capacity building projects, new markets, mobility projects and international recruitment.

Aboubakr holds a BSc in Business IT, MSc in International Business and an MBA in Project Management, as well as preparing for his PhD in leadership and strategic planning. He is the project manager for several capacity building and mobility projects stretching from Europe to the MENA region, including Egypt, Lebanon, Morocco, Tunisia, Algeria, Libya, Jordan, Italy, Spain, Greece and many more.

Aboubakr is also a founder and Executive Board member of the first ARab European LEadership Network for Higher Education - 'ARELEN', which trains Higher Education leaders on the challenges facing the international higher education sector and how to lead adaptively. Aboubakr is actively involved in HE strategy development, HE reform, and consultation, and is a key speaker in many HE conferences such as the Arab European Conference on Higher Education