

Catarina Moleiro (Policy and Communication Officer; BA, Coimbra; female) has been working as policy officer at the Coimbra Group Office since 2008, where she is also communication officer. Within the Coimbra Group Office Catarina Moleiro assists the Chairs of the Latin America, Life Sciences, Employability, Education Innovation and Academic Exchange and Mobility working groups. She has experience in project management and in project activities dissemination. Organisation of events and communication skills with partners from all parts of Europe and beyond. Solid relationships with partner institutions and experience in project activities.