

ROBERTA RASA

Project Coordinator.

Roberta is responsible for the implementation of ICMED project due to her strong experience in university internationalisation strategies and international relations and affairs including: design, management & monitoring of EU-funded projects; development of international curricula; exchange programmes and bilateral agreements; international students and scholars; study-abroad advising; international recruitment; drafting and implementation of bilateral exchange programmes and agreements. Roberta has previously coordinated AUDIS project (EDULINK) and was responsible for local interviews in Algeria (TUNING AFRICA project).

